Well done to the children who took part in the Show Racism the Red Card competition. Our winners completed fantastic poems and posters, which are now on display in our library area.